

The Mysterious Stranger

The Mysterious Stranger is a Christian fiction story. Although the characters and events are fictional, the basis for the story is not. It was inspired by a Bible text that makes reference to human beings entertaining angels without realizing it.

*(Do not be forgetful of hospitality, for through this, some have entertained angels unawares. New American Standard Bible)
Hebrews 13:2*

The storyline will follow Jim Smith, a mild mannered reporter with the Christian Gazette, a national newspaper, which focuses on Christian events, people and happenings around the world.

Jim, our reporter, takes an assignment to track down a mysterious stranger that keeps showing up in different places at different times in the lives of different folks that need help in some way.

The people Jim schedules for an interview have one common thread that binds them all together. They all encountered a mysterious stranger that helped them in their time of need.

The story will address some modern day social issues and will also touch on God's Will, Man's Destiny, Faith, Loyalty, Free Will and The Authority of The Bible.

The reader will accompany our reporter as he talks to eyewitnesses who experienced an encounter with a stranger that just happened to show up at the point of their need.
